About Us

Monarch Solicitors was founded by C.E.O, Shazda Ahmed and quickly became one of the fastest growing law firms in Manchester, with an expanding client base. Shazda started her career in a regional heavyweight commercial law firm, where she practiced for over 7 years. She then moved into the public sector, advising central government (The Insolvency Service and H.M.R.C) and then Local Government (Tameside Council and Manchester City Council).

Shazda is also a Trustee of the Antz Junction charity based in Greater Manchester, assisting the organisation in helping those who are and disadvantaged in the community. We consider social responsibility an important core of our identity and consider it important and necessary to give back to our local community. Our ambitions are to grow both commercially, and in our social reach to affect real societal change so that everyone can prosper.

For over half a decade, Monarch Solicitors under the leadership of Managing Partner and CEO, Shazda Ahmed has gone from strength to strength, punching above its weight, to provide legal services to clients nationally and internationally.
